Match Grant Extended to the End of 2018!

Life is hectic and sometimes our best intentions aren't realized because we simply run out of time. If you had wanted to participate in the match grant, October is usually too late in the year to have your donation doubled. Well, this year, the great news just keeps on coming from the J.A. Woollam Foundation, and even the procrastinators (like me!) can have a late-season impact on conservation! The J.A. Woollam Fdn. has agreed to extend the match grant thru the entire year! This is in ADDITION to the commitment John Woollam has made towards the $250,000 Endowment for HeadWaters which he is also matching dollar-for-dollar! It has been an incredible year so far and is shaping up to be one of the best ever!

We have talked to you A LOT about fundraising this year. We understand that many of you have already been very generous in your support. But can you imagine us NOT shouting from the treetops about these unbelievable and rare opportunities?
